	Dr. Ashutosh Gaur, faculty member at MIMT, engaged in a productive interaction with students. During this, he was accompanied by group of dedicated student volunteers who helped facilitate the conversation. Together, they collected a comprehensive list of the challenges and concerns that students are currently facing in their academic lives. Dr. Gaur took the time to carefully listen to each issue raised and provided insightful guidance, offering practical solutions and advice for overcoming these obstacles. The discussion was an invaluable opportunity for students to voice their problems while receiving expert advice on how to navigate and thrive in the academic environment. Dr. Gaur's thoughtful approach and the collaborative effort of the student volunteers highlighted the importance of community support and open dialogue in fostering a positive and growth-oriented educational atmosphere. Overall the event celebrated the essence of patriotism and social responsibility of each citizen.
Outcome of Activity	1. Students displayed enhanced awareness of Republic Day's significance. It Strengthened school-community connection and Increased civic consciousness among students. 2. Students displayed Clear identification of community challenges. Open dialogue and prioritization of issues. Empowerment of villagers to voice concerns. Greater understanding of local governance. 3. Development of a clear, actionable plan. Empowerment of community members in solution-making.
