Organized by	UBA Cell, Mangalmai Institute of Management and Technology
Activity In-charge	Mr. Piyush Kumar, Coordinator, UBA Cell,Mangalmai Institute of Management and Technology
Objectives	• To provide essential winter clothing (blankets) to the needy in Village Chiti. • To inculcate a sense of social responsibility and compassion among MBA students. • To foster community engagement and outreach activities.
Participants	24 MBA students
Content	The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell (UBA Cell) of Mangalmai Institute of Management and Technology successfully conducted a blanket distribution drive at Village Chiti on December 31, 2024. This initiative aimed to provide essential winter clothing to the underprivileged members of the community and foster a sense of social responsibility among the MBA students. The UBA Cell meticulously coordinated the drive, including the collection of blankets, logistical arrangements, and on-site operations. On the day of the drive, MBA students actively participated alongside faculty and staff members. They engaged directly with the beneficiaries, ensuring the blankets were distributed effectively and compassionately. The students' involvement not only fulfilled the practical objective of providing warmth but also instilled valuable life lessons of empathy and community engagement. The drive was a resounding success, with 40 blankets distributed to those in need. The positive feedback from the beneficiaries and the local community further emphasized the impact of this initiative. This event served as a valuable experience for the MBA students, demonstrating the importance of contributing to society and making
