Report

Name of Activity	Swachhta Bhi, Samanta Bhi – Babu ke Sapno ka Bharat Yahi
Date	29 th September, 2025
Venue	Village-Chiti, Jewar, Greater Noida (UP)
Organized by	UBA Cell, MIMT
Beneficiaries	26 Students & 16 Villagers
Activity In charge	Dr. Deepesh Kumar Thakur
Objectives	To sensitize students and community members about the importance of cleanliness, hygiene, and sanitation To engage students, faculty, and local residents in collective cleanliness activities that foster social responsibility and civic sense. To contribute towards the national mission of building a clean, green, and healthy India envisioned by Mahatma Gandhi. To develop a sense of environmental ethics among participants through workshops, discussions, and field activities such as cleanliness drives and rallies.
Content	As part of the Swachhta Pakhwada initiative, the MBA students of Mangalmai Institute of Management & Technology (MIMT), Greater Noida, presented a thought-provoking Nukkad Natak titled “Swachhta Bhi, Samanta Bhi – Babu ke Sapno ka Bharat Yahi.” The event was organized under the aegis of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan and the Cultural Club of MIMT, led by Dr. Deepesh Kumar Thakur. The Nukkad Natak was performed at a government school in Village Chiti, Greater Noida, with the objective of spreading awareness about the importance of cleanliness, equality, and social responsibility — the core values envisioned by Mahatma Gandhi.

	Through powerful dialogues, expressive acting, and creative storytelling, the students conveyed the message that a truly clean and progressive India is one where there is not only physical cleanliness but also purity of thought, equality, and respect for all. The performance effectively highlighted issues like waste management, hygiene, and social discrimination, while motivating the audience to take small yet impactful steps towards creating “Bapu ke Sapno ka Bharat” — a nation that upholds both Swachhta (Cleanliness) and Samanta (Equality). The activity received enthusiastic participation from the students and appreciative feedback from teachers and local villagers. It served as a meaningful platform for experiential learning, community engagement, and the reinforcement of Gandhian values among the youth.
Outcomes	Participants developed a deeper understanding of the importance of cleanliness, sanitation, and hygiene in daily life and public spaces. The rally and workshop successfully brought together students, faculty, and local residents, fostering collective responsibility towards a cleaner environment.
