Report
Name of Activity	Workshop on Entrepreneurship & Regional Development
Date	13/02/2021
Venue	Seminar Hall
Organised by	MBA Department
Participated by	MBA Faculty Members and Students-106
Name of Expert	Dr. Jaspreet Kaur (MIMT Faculty)
Activity Convener	Ms. Sonali Chauhan (MIMT Faculty)
Objective	The main aim was to provide insights of the role of entrepreneurs in development of backward & rural areas.
Content	With the Initiative of MBA Department, Mangalmay Institute of Management and Technology organized an activity on entrepreneurship & regional development. The expert started the workshop with the focus of how entrepreneurship helps to remove regional disparities through setting up industries in less developed & backward areas. The growth of industries & business in the backward & under developed areas leads to a large number of public benefits like road transport, health, education, entertainment etc. The expert highlighted that entrepreneurship can contribute to the economic development of the nation by promoting balance regional development. Entrepreneurs provide large scale employment to the unemployed of less developed & backward areas by setting up more & more units both on large scale & small scale at different regions. She inspired all MBA students as to how to be a successful entrepreneur and contributes toward economic development of the nations. She discussed various tax incentives or tax holidays given by the government on setting up industries in under developed or backward areas.
Outcome of Activity	The students learned about various tax benefits schemes like tax holidays & other subsidies & incentives provided by the government on setting up industries in less developed areas.
